

Professor Christopher H. Bovis, JD, MPhil, LLM, FRSA

Professor Christopher Bovis JD, MPhil, LLM, FRSA is H.K. Bevan Chair in Law and Professor of European Business Law at the University of Hull. He is Special Advisor to the UN on Public Private Partnerships and Academic Advisor to the European Union on the Single Market. He advises national governments and industry across the world on public sector reforms and has been instrumental in structuring flagship public-private partnerships in the UK, EU and overseas.

Professor Christopher Bovis is a leading authority in public procurement and public-private partnerships and specializes in anti-trust law and policy, with particular emphasis on public sector management. He has acted on behalf of governments, the defence sector and industry on numerous high profile projects

He has published extensively in international legal and management journals and has produced 74 books, monographs and articles on European and business subjects. His academic work has been translated into different languages, including Chinese, French and German.

He is Managing Editor of the European Public Private Partnerships Law Review, published by Lexxion. He is Contributing Editor of the Encyclopedia of Competition Law, published by Sweet and Maxwell with responsibilities for transport, telecommunications and public procurement. He has served on the editorial board of legal journals such as European Public Law, Company Lawyer, Amicus Curiae and International Corporate Law.

His main publications include: EU Public Procurement Law, European Law Studies Series, Edward Elgar 2007; Public Procurement: Case Law and Regulation, Oxford University Press 2006; Public Procurement in the European Union, Palgrave-Macmillan 2005.