

Irina Zalužnaja

Deputy Head of Electronic Procurement Development Division

Public Procurement Office

Kareivių str. 1, LT- 08221, Vilnius, Lithuania

Telephone: +370 5 213 3238; Mobile: +370 685 57944

E-mail: i.zaluzhnaja@vpt.lt

Since 2002 actively involved in the transposition of public procurement process in electronic environment in Lithuania starting from e-notification and e-reporting elements and finishing with Central Public Procurement Information System (CPP IS), which enables to organize whole cycle of public procurement in electronic way, authoring. Responsible for further e-procurement development opportunities investigation and play one of pivotal roles in the CPP IS development project. Involved in E-leaning and Public Procurement Risk Management System development projects' work groups. Analyze information on e-procurement; report such information to the state authorities. Responsible for the CPP IS administration. Coordinate the CPP IS support and maintains process. Collaborate with applications developers to resolve problems. Consulting contracting authorities, suppliers, controlling authorities on working with CPP IS and on performing electronic public procurement.